

1st Discussion question

Things have sure changed when it comes to finances just in the last few years. PayPal, online checking, Bitcoin, I can even text someone money. Where do you think future of money is going and what will currency be like ten years from now?

Instruction: you can simple reply to this post and your answer should be more than 200 words for attendance credit of the 1st week.